“ Daryl,

You were always a good friend to my family. You were good buddies with my brother John and then in later years you were a great friend to me. I will cherish all the times we had making each other laugh and sharing stories. Until I see you again my friend, save me a spot at the table.

To Daryl's family,

You are in my thoughts and prayers

“ Daryl, we all enjoyed the times you came to our family gatherings with Cathy. We will miss you but will always have great memories. You were part of our extended family. You and I considered ourselves brother-in-law and sister-in-law and lived up to that relationship. We all love and miss you. Until we meet again, Billy and Jean Ann Taylor

“ My dearest Daryl, we met at work twenty-one years ago when you had a coworker tell me you were "the goods"...and you were. Over the years we had our ups and downs, but through it all we always managed to find our way together. Gone way too soon, I know you are now at peace. Save a space for me next to you up there and soon we will be together again to begin our next adventure. I miss you with all my heart. All my love- Cathy

“ Oh, my sweet cousin! I have so many happy memories of us all as kids. I still remember how sweet you were to me when I wanted to follow you all around Stuart Prep. You always had a big smile and hug for me no matter how long it had been since we had seen each other.

Joan, Calvin, and Brian-you are all in my prayers. I know there are no adequate words. I'm so sorry!

All my love, Heather

“ Daryl Jo, you were such a dear person. I can't believe you are gone so soon. We worked together for several years and every day was an adventure. You made it fun for all of us. When you first came to work, the ladies in the office asked your name and you said, “ Just call me Big Daddy.” Since many of them were taller than you they said, “ No, you're Little Daddy.” And that's what they very affectionally then called you. We all loved you dearly and to say you lit up the room when you walked in is not just a cliché. You lit up our day every day you were there. Some days the only bright spot that appeared.

A beautiful bright light that shown on the face of the earth has now gone out. But your spirit and being will continue to glow within those us us lucky enough to have gotten close to it.

Sending up much love and prayers. And hope you put in a good word for me to the big guy.
