“ Dear Ronnie, Kathy, Lori and Karen, I wanted to pass along my condolences to your family. I can remember like it was yesterday the days we spent as Neighbors on Dorian Street. And I remember my mom assisting and buying the houses when you moved. And I still remember the first time I ate lasagna it was at your house and I still use your mom's recipe. Even though your dad has gone he will never be forgot. May God be with you and your dad's soul. Keith Crawford
